“I am grateful to be able to help my patients achieve visual freedom through precise state of the art eye surgery” says LASIK surgeon Dr. Sandy T. Feldman, Medical Director of ClearView Eye & Laser Medical Center, A PC.

She has performed over 20 thousand refractive procedures and has the confidence that modern LASIK is so precise she performed LASIK on her own husband. Twelve years later, he still has 20/15 vision in each eye. Her experience along with the use of the most sophisticated technology that customizes the procedure for our eyes ensures the highest probability of attaining the best possible outcomes.

Dr. Sandy T. Feldman attended medical school at Rush Medical College Rush University in Chicago, IL where she also fulfilled her ophthalmology residency. Additional training followed with a fellowship at the University of California, San Diego, La Jolla, CA, in Cornea External Disease and Refractive Surgery. She remained on faculty at the University of California, San Diego rising to the ranks of Associate Professor in Residence and also served as Director of Refractive Surgery.

As a leader in the field of ophthalmology, Dr. Feldman has participated in FDA clinical studies of Custom LASIK, and is considered one of the top ophthalmologists in the country. Currently, she is involved in studies of a new treatment to halt the progression of keratoconus, a disease in which the fitting of contact lenses can become challenging. In 2009, she was one of ten laser eye care providers in the U.S. to receive the Goldline Award as seen Forbes Magazine. In 2010, she was awarded the Silver Elite RealSelf award, as well as Top Doc San Diego. Her center Clearview Eye & Laser Medical Center — also voted best LASIK center in San Diego by CityBeat Magazine in 2013.

Dr. Feldman was inducted into the prestigious American College of Ophthalmic Surgeons. And she is a member of the American Academy of Ophthalmology and American Society of Cataract and Refractive Surgery.

Professional athletes in numerous arenas have trusted their eyes to Dr. Feldman; from professional skateboarder Tony Hawk, to former Iron Man Triathletes Scott Tinley and Lori Bowden and baseball player, Brett Tomko. She has performed surgery on so many athletes in Southern California area that she is considered “The Athlete’s Choice.” She has also performed surgery on thousands of doctors including other surgeons, as well as the Dr. Josef Bille, the inventor of the WaveScan™ device used in Custom LASIK.

Dr. Feldman is considered a trusted expert regularly featured on San Diego TV and Radio stations and important online medical resources. She is routinely sought out for commentary in Media publications related to vision health and trends for the public and her colleagues.
